Although it varies depending on the supervisor, students will attend approximately 60 hours of classes, seminars, etc.

⑤ Outline of the course

▪ Japanese language education

Starting in October 2025, an intensive Japanese course is offered to students with the N2 examination level of Japanese language proficiency in order to enhance their Japanese language proficiency to a level that enables them to conduct activities smoothly in specialized fields. The course runs for 16 weeks from October 2025 to February 2026, and consists of approximately 3 lectures per day for 5 days a week. Students below the N2 Examination level can take an online Japanese supplementary course for approximately 3 classes a week.

However, since this course aims to acquire the Japanese language level necessary for daily life, students who take the Japanese supplementary course must be able to receive research guidance in English.

Students who are already at the N2 level or above when they come to Japan, and those who have completed the above intensive course, can also take Japanese language courses that are open to undergraduate students and others if they wish to further enhance their Japanese language skills.

▪ Specialized training

Supervisor takes responsibility to advise the program students depending on their majors and needs. The students are required to take the professional classes and seminar in the lab. Registration of other classes aside from their research field would be acceptable if they want. Tutorial system is provided by an advisor considering each student's research subject.

No lectures are taught in English but the language might be used in advice on lectures, practice, individual guidance and daily life in supplementary means.

▪ Practical Training, Participatory subjects such as field trips and regional exchange, and others

The student's position is research student. No credits are certified. Outside activities such as visiting and lecturing at affiliated schools (kindergarten, elementary school, junior high school, school for children with special needs), excursion and so on are held.

◇ Outline and characteristics of the course for Teacher Training Students

① Characteristics of the program

The teacher-training program at Hyogo University of Teacher Education (HUTE) is designed for school teachers from foreign countries (referred to as international school teachers) seeking for higher levels of pedagogical competence and abilities. This program provides a broad range of opportunities for interdisciplinary study and research in school education. The Graduate School teaching staff provide research opportunities to meet the needs and interests of the international school teachers.

② Number of students to be accepted: 5

③ Period of scholarship October 2024 – March 2026

④ Requirement for program completion

Teacher training students will conduct approximately 12 hours of research per week according to their own research subject, and they are required to submit the final report and make the presentation on their research studies to complete the program.

⑤ Outline of the course

• Japanese language education

- 1) The international school teachers are required to take the Japanese Language Course at an institute (usually at Kobe University) for 6 months: October 1, 2024 – March 31, 2025.
- 2) Supplementary classes for Japanese language are offered at HUTE (once a week): April, 2025– March, 2026.

• Specialized training: April 1, 2025 – March 31, 2026 (One year)

Each international school teacher pursues his or her professional training according to his or her individual program; taking classes with Japanese graduate/undergraduate students, a special seminar under the guidance of the international school teacher's academic supervisor, and educational practicum at elementary and secondary schools. The program is based on the international teacher's academic interests, Japanese language ability, and professional competence. Since most classes are conducted in Japanese, it is desirable to achieve a certain level of Japanese language ability through the six months of language training in Japan.

• Practical training, participatory subjects such as field trips and regional exchanges

① Characteristics and history

Nara Women's University has its beginning in the former Nara Women's Higher Normal School founded in 1908, and celebrated its 110th anniversary in May of 2019. Since its foundation, we have fulfilled our role as an institute providing women with education at the highest level.

In 1949, Hiroshima University was founded with our hope of reborn and peace after an atomic bomb which completely destroyed Hiroshima City. And now, setting a long-term vision as “realizing a diversified, free and peaceful global society”, we aim to contribute for achieving the Sustainable Development Goals. We have a reputation as a leading university among education universities in Western Japan, as well as being prominent among all the universities of Japan for its large number of students.

Hiroshima University consists of 12 undergraduate and 5 graduate schools, performing the education and research activities to meet various demands in our society under globalization, informatization, lifelong learning, and international cooperation. Aside from the undergraduate and graduate programs, Hiroshima University offers a variety of unique research centers including the Research Institute for Higher Education, the Center for Peace, the Morito Institute of Global Higher Education, and the Research Institute for Radiation Biology and Medicine.

Separated from the bustling city and surrounded by abundance of nature, the vast Higashi-Hiroshima Campus provides the perfect study environment.

② Number of Students to be Accepted: 30

③ Period of Scholarship: October 2024 – March 2026

④ Program Outline and Completion

• Japanese Language Education

A six-month intensive Japanese language course at the elementary level is offered in the Morito Institute of Global Higher Education (about 30 hours of instruction per week). As long as main supervisor accepts, they could be admitted directly into academic training (if necessary, with the intermediate or advanced Japanese Language/Japanese Affairs course) for one and a half year without the above-mentioned intensive language course.

• Specialized Training

We provide for individual academic tutoring by main supervisor and conduct in-depth research on respective training themes during one-year academic training. Depending on each supervisor, 10 hours or more of study time per week is required for research, lectures, and practicum. At the end of the course, teacher training students are required to submit their final report as a part of their course work.

• Practical Training, Fieldwork, and Exchanges

Extra-curricular activities and cultural programs with Japanese students will be organized by university such as school visits, exchange programs, tours to historical places in Hiroshima.

◆ Follow-up for graduates

Hiroshima University has 23 overseas bases in 15 countries and regions. And, Overseas Alumni Associations have been organized in nine countries and regions for networking those who have graduated or completed their studies including teacher training students. We will soon make a new platform for the collaboration of overseas bases, alumni associations, companies, and related organizations. As the first model, the Hiroshima University Alumni Association Indonesia Chapter was established in 2022.

Even after completing their studies, teacher training students keep in touch with their main supervisors and actively devote themselves with high expertise to the educational development in their home countries.

* Overseas Bases: China (Beijing, Shanghai, Chongqing, Changchun, Qinhuaungdao), Taiwan, South Korea, Mongolia, Indonesia (Jakarta, Bandung), Vietnam, Myanmar, Cambodia, Russia, Germany (Münster, Saarland), Lithuania, Mexico (Mexico City, Guanajuato), Brazil, Kenya, Egypt (Cairo, Galala)
